

Newspaper Run

This activity offers participants a great opportunity to gain an understanding of the tasks involved in completing a paper run from folding , packing, loading/unloading to delivering the papers to local community households. It gives participants the responsibility and experience of a job, to learn about proper work etiquette and attitude, to maintain fitness through walking, to understand the concept of earning money through working, to developing team work, to learning the importance of road safety, to understanding life skills and being involved in activities in the local community.

Every six months, participants will be given a credit which, they can exchange for vouchers of their own choice, including JB HI-FI, Big W.
