

Process Art and Craft

Aberdoon House is a wonderful creative environment that offers a great space to explore through different art and craft processes. This program encourages participants to explore their creative side using different art techniques and tools. The activities can be individualised to the abilities and talents of the Participants. It enables sensory benefits, develops social skills with fun group projects and develops fine motor skills in a creative environment encouraging increased confidence in self through expression.

